Permaculture Facilitators: The lead facilitator is Ezio ("Buzz") Gori, with co-opted facilitators and hosts, Michael and Colleen Thornhill on their farm Renewal Retreat. What students will learn: This PDC provides students with a very wide range of sustainable design skills that will add value to your business, your projects, your livelihood and your health. Michael and Colleen (www.colleenshealthbeat.co.za) will provide healthy vegan meals, demonstrate how these are prepared and also lecture about nutrition. The PDC is underpinned by a thorough Permaculture design process that is designed to embed project management skills to facilitate the ensuing Permaculture design practice that students will undertake during the course. Download the full PDC programme at <http://www.permaculture2012.co.za/page.aspx?ID=7889>.

Accreditation: This PDC is internationally accredited with the Permaculture Research Institute (PRI), Australia, and, the Permaculture Association, Britain.

PDC Costs: The 12-day PDC fee is R9 500 per student, including memory stick with PDC info pack, field trips, refreshments and vegan meals. Additional costs for accommodation from evening of 1st to morning of 14th September at R2 600 in a dormitory or R5 200 for en suite shared room. Up to 10% payment accepted by prior arrangement in "Talents" from www.ctte.org.za.

Enquiries: For bookings, contact Buzz at whatabuz@iafrica.com or +27 83 300 2385. R1000 deposit required to confirm your booking before 2018/08/15. Minimum 8 full paying students required to host course. Transfers from George airport available on request.

Requirements: We invite students to bring their sense of humour and genius to play. This is an alcohol, drug and meat free event.
